Introduction/Dedication

Ernest Lorant originally handwrote this book in English in the early 1980's. Although English is not his first language, it is remarkable how well he wrote this book. Ernest has strength in linguistics, knowing eight languages. His first language is Hungarian, then Yiddish, German, Latin, French, Romanian, Hebrew, and English.

Ernest is dedicating this book to his eight grand-children; Erick Buller, Elan Buller, Jennifer (Lorant) Samstag, Michael Buller, David Lorant, Matthew Lorant, Joey Lorant, and Sara Lorant along with their future generations and all the people that suffered and died in the Holocaust.
