GENTLEMEN,

A business friend of mine from Bohemia gave me your address and I take the liberty to write you and to apply to you for help.

I am a linendraper and up to the year 1938 I was partner of the registered firm Glaser & Weiss, Vienna, IX, Alserbachstrasse 10 and 10a in our own houses. Our firm was one of the best known in this line in Vienna.

My wife and I must leave Germany within a short time and we are not able to pay the voyage to America.

In my despair I apply to you for help and <sup>you</sup> to procure the ship-tickets for us from Lissabon to New-York.

On arriving in America it will be my first duty to give you the money back as soon as possible.

We thank you in advance for all you are going to do for us and request you to answer us as soon as possible.

Yours
thankfully

Max Glaser
