Dear Mr. Gliksman!

I received your letter from January 27, 1949 with the mandate for me to represent you in the Jewish Court of Honor. I also received mandate, which you sent to Mr. Walkowicz for me. I will try to do everything in my power to represent your case. It is important for you to come and see me. Since I am busy at Justiz Abteilung (The Legal Department of the Central Committee of the Liberated Jews in the US zone of occupation in Germany). I work until 4:30 in the afternoon, so please come to my private apartment on Knobler Street No. 12, 3rd floor (in bitter), next to Izator Square and Herten Street, on Monday, February 7, 1949 at 5 o'clock in the afternoon. Please confirm yours coming.

Greetings to you and your wife.

Sincerely,
