

To whom it may concern.

The enclosed is a history of the Bialistok ghetto written by Mr. Broide, a resident of Maracaibo, Venezuela, whose memoirs are also in the Jerusalem Yad-va-shem.

The Cassette is from an interview about his experiences with the partisans and can be added to if somebody will get in touch with Mr. Broide by mail or through local institutions.

I would cooperate in translating and contacting with Mr. Broide if it should be decided by your office, that the labor will not be in vain.

Hoping to hear from you soon, I remain

Donor

yours truly

Abraham Dobbins

Abraham Dobbins