3 Tons Meat Seized. 5 Black Market Magicians Arrested In Drive To Break Up Food Supply.

N.Y. Fri. March 5, 1943.—The first arrest and subsequent fine of its kind in the annals of U.S. history, took place at 6:30 A.M. in the Bronx, when Nathan Grossman, of 69 N. Division Peekskill described as a wholesale meat dealer, was taken into custody after his truck crossed the city line at Jerome Ave.

Grossman said the meat was not for sale in N.Y. City, but was fined $250. The confiscated meat was turned over to the city hospitals, where the patients would enjoy the kosher treat.
