

: : Locust : Cottage : :

J. B. MERWIN, Proprietor, PRATTSVILLE, GREENE CO., NEW YORK.

LOCUST COTTAGE HAS MODERN IMPROVEMENTS and is noted for its Picturesque Scenery. Is located near Prattsville and also within a short distance of Grand Gorge, on the Ulster & Delaware Railroad. Daily mail, local and long distance telephone connections. Livery attached. Accommodations for 20 to 25 guests. Piano in house. For other particulars address the proprietor,
J. B. MERWIN, PRATTSVILLE, N. Y.

Best City References.

Gentiles Only Need Apply.

THE TABLE.

The tables are tempting and liberally supplied with cream, butter, vegetables, fresh eggs and fruits from the farm.

RATES:---$7.00 TO $8.00 PER WEEK.

This beautiful view is within a few minutes walk of the house.

DRIVES AND WALKS.

Short drives to Roxbury, the home of Helen Gould, Stamford, Gilboa, Windham, East Windham, Hunter, Tannersville, Lexington, Westkill, etc.

Short walks of from five to twenty minutes from the Cottage to some of the best attractions in the Catskills.

PRATTSVILLE.

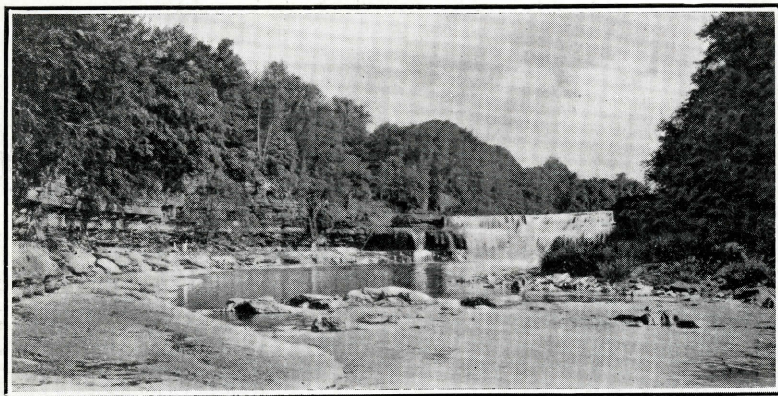

This little village is situated on the east branch of the Schoharie creek and right in the heart of the Catskills. Prattsville has three churches; Methodist, Dutch Reformed and Episcopal. Two mails per day.

It has all the conveniences to be had in any country village for the comforts and accommodations of City Guests. There is also a 16-piece concert band and concerts are given every week.

ACCESSIBILITY.

West Shore Railroad from West 42nd Street to Kingston, then Ulster and Delaware Railroad to Grand Gorge. Nearly all trains are through without change from New York to Grand Gorge. When buying ticket at 42nd Street, have baggage checked to Grand Gorge.

View of Devasego Falls and Gorge,

Albany Day Line Steamers from Desbrosses Street, 42nd Street and 129th Street to Kingston Point, then Ulster & Delaware R. R. to Grand Gorge.

A time-table can be secured at nearly any hotel, or by applying to General Passenger Agent at 42nd Street or to any Railroad Agency.

APPOINTMENTS.

Guests met at all trains at Grand Gorge if notified in advance.