

CHARLES LINDBERGH

PIONEER AVIATOR...
COMBAT PILOT...
ENVIRONMENTALIST...
INVENTOR...
AMERICAN...
FIRST, LAST, ALWAYS.

NOW, HEAR THIS AMERICAN HERO'S VITAL MESSAGE FOR TODAY.

WHEN ALIEN FORCES threatened to drag America into another fratricidal European war, there was no greater voice, no clearer message than that of Charles Lindbergh. The man who won world-fame with his daring solo conquest of the Atlantic braved Establishment censure, media sniping and the ire of President Franklin D. Roosevelt to present the case for America's traditional foreign policy to the American people over the airwaves and in monster public rallies across the nation. And Lindbergh dared to call by name the enemies of a truly American policy—whether international financiers, rancorous Zionists, imperialist Anglophiles, Soviet sympathizers—without fear or malice.

Yes, Lindbergh wasn't heeded, and a treacherous president and his scheming henchmen led their countrymen down the primrose path that began with Pearl Harbor and continued through the shame of Yalta and Potsdam, and half a century's entanglements in the tentacles of empire: no-win wars, foreign-aid giveaways, and insane alliances with troublemakers around the globe. But Charles Lindbergh's voice for a strong, self-reliant, non-interventionist U.S.A.—for AMERICA FIRST—rings out as strongly and as sanely in these days of President George Bush's threatening "NEW WORLD ORDER" as it did in 1939, 1940, and 1941.

Now you and your friends and loved ones can hear Charles Lindbergh, as millions and tens of millions of Americans heard him in the dark days before our entry into World War II, in four stirring addresses to the nation. You'll marvel at this incomparable American hero's cool logic, calm analysis and passionate devotion to his country's cause. You'll thrill to the enthusiastic acclaim tens of thousands of your fellow Americans roared for Lindy at Soldier Field in Chicago and Madison Square Garden. And you'll understand with new clarity the vital importance of Lindbergh's message for today—his plea for a strong, self-sufficient, sovereign United States—for America First.

Four Addresses on one audiocassette: Radio address, October 13, 1939: "Neutrality and War" • Speech at America First Rally, Soldier Field, Chicago, August 4, 1940: "Our Relationship with Europe" • Radio Address October 14, 1940 • America First Rally, Madison Square Garden, New York, May 23, 1941. $9.95 + $2 shipping & handling.

INSTITUTE FOR HISTORICAL REVIEW

1822½ Newport Blvd., #191, Costa Mesa, CA 92627