

5 December 1943.

Sunday.

Dear Brother & Sister,

Hope that you are well and ok. Have not heard from you in over three weeks, I believe. That is unusual for you, and I sincerely hope that you are both well and just busy.

Anyway, I want you to know that I am thinking of you as always. Wish that I might drop in for dinner some day soon, and right at the moment I have some hope of getting a furlough before we leave. As yet it is only a dream, a hope, and a prayer, but I should know more definitely about the furlough this coming week. Keep your fingers crossed.

Hope to see you soon. Write when you can. Lots of love.

Your brother, Cliff
