

5 DPA SERIES: THE NAZI HOLOCAUST - SERIES II — In a 1922 speech, Hitler said: "The Jew has never founded any civilization, though he has destroyed hundreds. He possesses nothing of his own creation to which he can point. Everything he has stolen . . . In the last resort it is the Aryan alone who can form States and set them on their path to future greatness." Anti-Semitism is the consistent theme running through Hitler's thoughts. His purpose was obvious and unwavering: he very largely succeeded in exterminating the Jewish people of Europe. The exaltation of the racial myth and emphasis on the doctrine that might is right were so commonplace they could be found in the works of almost any ish people of Europe. The exaltation of the racial myth and emphasis on the doctrine that might is right were so commonplace they could be found in the works of almost any ish people of Europe. The exaltation of the racial myth and emphasis on the doctrine that might is right were so commonplace they could be found in the works of almost any ish people of Europe. The exaltation of the racial myth and emphasis on the doctrine that might is right were so commonplace they could be found in the works of almost any ish people of Europe.

DOCUMENTARY PHOTO AIDS®
Box 956, Mount Dora, Florida 32757