Dear Madam:

Reference is made to your letter of Jan. 7, 1943, inquiring about your application to amend your alien registration and alien enemy identification records.

Please be advised that this office is unable to state when you may expect a decision in the matter as after the investigation is completed at this office, your application will be transmitted to the Alien Registration Division at Philadelphia, Pa. for their decision.

In the event you move to California, it is suggested that you advise us of your new address making sure to refer to the file number appearing in the upper right hand corner of this letter.

Very truly yours,

W. F. WATKINS
District Director, New York District
