

REDS DON'T ELECT PRESIDENTS! THEIR PLAN IS TO CAPTURE PRESIDENTS!

On November 16, 1933, less than nine months after his first inauguration, Franklin Roosevelt bowed to Soviet power (The Iron Curtain Over America, pages 52-55).

On December 15, 1945, eight months and three days after he became president, Mr. Truman yielded to similar pressure (The Iron Curtain Over America, pages 113-115).

On November 5, 1952, the great political struggle of the mid-century began — the covert, devious, unrelenting struggle of pro-Soviet forces to influence the policies and the appointments of President Eisenhower, especially in such important fields as IMMIGRATION, ATOMIC ENERGY, and FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

WHAT ARE THESE FORCES? HOW DO THEY WORK?

For a full answer, so detailed and so documented that it cannot be successfully challenged, and for tested methods of counteraction, read

WHAT IS BACK OF OUR STRANGE FOREIGN POLICY?

Why are so many of our top government officials willing to send native American boys to fight Communism in Asia but are hostile to those who actively oppose Communism in this country? What close connection existed between Alger Hiss and our present Secretary of State?

Do you know why the strategically important and oil-rich Middle East, friendly for a hundred years, is now inflamed at our government?

The West is failing — not from the decline of material power but from the loss of a Spiritual unity based on the acceptance of some form of Christianity. Is there a relation between this loss of Spiritual unity and the infiltration of the governments of the West by members of a powerful international non-Christian minority?

After reading THE IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA, you will know the answers to the above and hundreds of similar questions.

THE AUTHOR

A veteran of World War I, John Beaty served nearly five years in World War II with the War Department General Staff. He wrote military studies, edited the daily intelligence summary, and headed important sections in the Military Intelligence Service. He left the service with the rank of Colonel.

With his established reputation as a scholar and an author, his familiarity with foreign lands and languages, and his work as a liaison officer between Army Intelligence and other government departments and agencies, Col. Beaty was uniquely prepared for the post-war research which led to the writing of THE IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA.

From coast to coast a number of patriotic writers and speakers have defied intimidation and risked "smears" to endorse

THE IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA

"Timely and important." — Los Angeles Times.

"As important for all American citizens to read as it is important for those who would be Christians to familiarize themselves with the precepts and principles of the Douai and King James versions of Holy Writ." — National Defense.

"I think it ought to be compulsory reading in every public school in the United States." — Senator William A. Langer, Chairman of the Senate Judiciary Committee, at meeting of Subcommittee on Nomination and Election of President and Vice President, July 15, 1953.

"It's the most revealing and frightening book that's come to my desk in ages. The veil of secrecy drawn over our American citizens is as sinister as anything in Russia." — Hedda Hopper, in her syndicated column.

"The revelations to be found within the covers of this book are a MUST for every person who loves America. Mr. Beaty, a patriotic Christian, has thrown all he has into the publication of the actual truth of what is going on within our country every day through the machinations of those who are bent on wrecking those institutions which have made us the greatest country in the world." — Dixie Book Shelf.

"THE IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA . . . will give anyone who reads it a certain insight into history that is necessary for one to have in order to rationalize some of the almost unbelievable things that are happening so fast around us." — R. L. Mullins in Bankers Digest.

"The most startling, challenging, alarming writing of the past fifty years is a book entitled THE IRON CURTAIN OVER AMERICA . . . Source material is quoted, named, and set right into the text . . . Things in your own memory, which seemed paradoxical and puzzling at the time, will shine forth as pieces which fit the pattern . . . Nothing I ever read in my life before stirred me so deeply, caused such wonder and anger, finally called for such quick action." — J. M. Hazlitt in his syndicated column.
