

AMERICAN RED CROSS

26 October 1943

Tuesday

Dear Sister & Bro,

You may be a little surprised to hear from me again so soon, but yesterday afternoon I got a letter from you, Sis, dated Oct 1st written to the hospital. It finally caught up with me. So, I am writing again right away to answer your letter.

You must have enjoyed staying in Aunt Ona's house, and I was glad to hear that you won $10<sup>00</sup> at the show. I'll bet that it did come in handy.

I am writing to you during a few spare moments after breakfast and before time to go to work. But I have to sweep around my bed and dust off my bed so I must close until next time. Thanks for the letters - write often & soon. Lots of love,

Your brother,
Cliff
