

"If I told you everything I know, you would not sleep. This way, I alone cannot sleep. The ghetto, too, is in the war." (Rumkowski, quoted in the diary of Oskar Rosenfeld) A large oil-on-canvas painting now in the Jewish Historical Institute of Warsaw, painted in the ghetto by M. Schwarz in 1942.